Welcome to Holy Trinity!
Holy Trinity recognizes that each of us is a unique creation made in the image of God. We celebrate and give thanks for the many diverse gifts that God has bestowed on us. We proclaim ourselves to be an open and affirming congregation to all of God’s people; welcoming into our ministry persons of every race, culture, age, gender identification, sexual orientation, ability, and economic status. We believe that our openness will allow us to grow in our faith through Christ’s teaching to love one another as God loves us.

We invite our guests as well as members to fill out the blue sheet, found inside your bulletin, and place in the offering plate.

INTRODUCTION
We worship on the first day of the week because our Savior was raised on that day. Every Sunday is a little Easter. This Sunday feels more like Easter than many as the appointed texts celebrate the reality of the resurrection. Live it up this Lord’s day. Our God is the God of the living.

VOLUNTARY
Chant De Paix
Jean Langlais
(1907-1991)

RINGING OF THE TOWER BELLS
O how glorious is the kingdom wherein all the saints rejoice with Christ; clothed in white robes they follow the Lamb whither soever He goeth.

Please stand as you are able.

OPENING HYMN

_O Day Full of Grace_ “Den Signede Dag”

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ¶ one God, healer of our every ill, source of unending mercy. Amen.

Embraced in enduring grace and good hope, let us turn again to God, confessing the truth about ourselves.

You are invited to kneel or sit, as you are able (10:30)

Merciful God,

we come before you, beloved but broken. We have not always treated others as we would want them to treat us. We have not always called out injustice and abuse. We have not always been kind to ourselves. We have not always taken care of the world we share with other living creatures. Remind us of who we are, beloved children bathed in your love. Renew us by your Spirit to live as your holy people, bringing healing to the brokenness around us. Amen.
At every moment you are held in existence by the love of God, renewed by the Spirit within and among you, and made alive again in Christ. Receive this assurance in Jesus’ name: you are forgiven and freed to live for the healing of the world.

Amen.

Please stand as you are able.

GREETING
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.
KYRIE

In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the peace from above, and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Lord have mercy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gracious Lord. Amen.

A WORD FOR THE CHILDREN The Rev. Brenda Maynor

FIRST READING: Job 19:23-27a
The first reading for the Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost is recorded in Job, the 19th Chapter.
23“O that my words were written down!
   O that they were inscribed in a book!
24O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock forever!
25For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth;
26and after my skin has been thus destroyed,
   then in my flesh I shall see God,
27a whom I shall see on my side,
   and my eyes shall behold, and not another.”
The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

ANTHEM

I Believe That My Redeemer Lives

C. Alexander Peloquin

(1918 – 1997)

Holly Holdaway, mezzo-soprano

I believe that my Redeemer lives and that on the last day I shall rise from the earth, and in my flesh I shall see God my Savior. It will not be some other being, but I myself who see Him; my own eyes shall look upon Him. And in my flesh I shall see God, my Savior. I believe that my Redeemer lives and that on the last day I shall rise from the earth, and in my flesh I shall see God, my Savior. Alleluia!

SECOND READING: 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

The second reading for today is recorded in 2nd Thessalonians, the 2nd Chapter.

1 As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, 2 not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. 3 Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. 4 He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. 5 Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

13 But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. 14 For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.
16 Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, 17 comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand for the Gospel, as you are able.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al-le- lu- ia. Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of e- ter-nal life. Al- le- lu- ia.

The holy gospel according to Saint Luke

27 Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to [Jesus] 28 and asked him a question, “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. 29 Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; 30 then the second 31 and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. 32 Finally the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.”
Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.”

The gospel of the Lord:

Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN OF THE DAY
I Know That My Redeemer Lives! “Duke Street”  ELW 619
(vs. 1-4, 8)

CREED
I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION
United with the saints of every time and place, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God’s creation.

Loving Redeemer, by grace you have chosen us to live boldly as resurrection people. Strengthen us to stand firm and proclaim the good news to the world. Strengthen all communities of faith, including the Buffalo City Cluster: Grace, North Park, Parkside, Resurrection, and Holy Trinity. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Maker of all, you bless us with the change of seasons. Create safe pathways as plants and animals prepare for winter, and make us good stewards of your bountiful creation. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Divine judge, your justice and mercy are revealed to us in your steadfast love. Grant rest and peace to our faithful veterans, and give courage to government officials who lead, serve, and protect. We pray especially for all men and women serving in the armed forces and their families. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.
Listening God, your beloved people call to you and you answer them. Hear the cries of those who are poor and unemployed, those who seek refuge, those who suffer from addiction, and all who are sick. Guard and keep them in your loving care. We also pray for all those we now name out loud, and those we remember in our hearts…. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Generous teacher, you look upon your children with a loving heart. Bless the ministries of those who work with, serve, teach, and lead children. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Watch over all of us, the young and young at heart. For your daughters and sons, including the children of our community and especially Hannah and Alex. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

God of the living, to you all are alive. We give thanks for those who have died in the faith. Give us joy in knowing that our Redeemer lives, and that we will be united with the faithful in a resurrection like his. Hear us, O God.

Your mercy is great.

Rejoicing in hope, we lift our prayers to you, most gracious Lord, trusting that you have received them in your care.

Amen.

PEACE
The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

Let us share with each other a sign of Christ’s peace
Please be seated.

ANTHEM AT THE OFFERING

God, Stir the Soil Roland Martin (b. 1955)

Text: Prayer from Singapore, anonymous

Alison Goodemote, oboe

God, stir the soil, run the plough-share deep, overturn the hard, dry ground.
Spare no strength nor toil, even though I weep.
In the loose, fresh mangled earth sow new seed.
Free of withered vine and weed bring fair flow'rs to birth.

Please stand as you are able.
OFFERING PRAYER
Let us pray together.
God our creator, you give us all we are, all we have, all we bring, and all we need. Draw us together around your table with all your saints on earth and in your eternal home. Let us eat and drink your promise of new life, that we might be your promise to the world, spoken in Jesus’ name.
Amen.

OFFERTORY
Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow
“Old Hundredth”
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heav’nly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

DIALOGUE
The Lord be with you. And also with you.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.
PREFACE
It is indeed right ... we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

Holy, holy, holy Lord, Lord God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glory.

Ho - san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san-na in the high - est.

THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER
Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord, heaven and earth are full of your glory. In great love you sent to us Jesus, your Son, who reached out to heal the sick and suffering, who preached good news to the poor, and who, on the cross, opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.
Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food, the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord; to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER
Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

AGNUS DEI
Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.
Please be seated.

THE COMMUNION

_Invitation to Communion_

All are welcome to share in the sacrament of Holy Communion at Holy Trinity. Beginning with those seated closest to the altar, you are invited to come forward to the communion rail (or to the presiding minister if the communion rails are not in place) and kneel or stand at the next available place at the rail. Receiving the wafer in your hand, you are invited to dip or “intinct” the wafer into the chalice. There is wine in the silver chalice and grape juice in the ceramic chalice. For those who prefer, gluten-free wafers are available by simply asking the Pastor as you are served. Adults or children choosing not to receive communion may come forward to receive a blessing. The Pastors will bring the sacrament to persons in the pews that are unable to come forward. Please advise an usher if you wish the pastor to do so. Come; there is a place for you at the table of our Lord.

COMMUNION MOTETS

_Christ the Appletree_
Stanford Scriven
(b. 1988)

The tree of life my soul hath seen, laden with fruit and always green; the trees of nature fruitless be, compar’d with Christ the appletree. This beauty doth all things excel, by faith I know, but ne’er can tell the glory which I now can see, in Jesus Christ the appletree. For happiness I long have sought, and pleasure dearly I have bought; miss’d of all, but now I see ‘tis found in Christ the appletree. This fruit doth make my soul to thrive, it keeps my dying faith alive; which makes my soul in haste to be with Jesus Christ the appletree. I’m weary’d with my former toil; here I will sit and rest a while; under the shadow I will be, of Jesus Christ the appletree.
O Sacred Feast
No. 4 from Six Motets

Healey Willan
(1880 – 1968)

O sacred feast wherein Christ is received, the memory of His passion is renewed in us, our souls are filled with grace, and the pledge of everlasting glory is given unto us.

Alleluia.

Please stand as you are able.

The body and blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in His grace. Amen.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER
Let us pray together.
We thank you, God our host, for inviting us here to taste the future when you will feed all the hungry at your table. Keep this hope alive in us and in our communities, so that we might bring hope to a suffering world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

SENDING OF COMMUNION
Compassionate God, as Jesus called disciples to follow him, bless those who go forth to share your word and sacrament with those who are sick, homebound or imprisoned. May these gifts be signs of our love and prayers, that through the sharing of the body and blood of Christ, all may know your grace and healing revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

BENEDICTION
Signed and sealed by the Holy Spirit, you are Christ’s message of love for this troubled world, written by the same Sender. May our Lord Jesus Christ and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word. Amen.

On Sunday, November 17 at 1:30pm, grammy-nominated, international touring artists Natasha Farny, cello and Eliran Avni, piano of the Ekstasis Duo, will perform a program with SUNY Fredonia string colleagues David Rose, viola and Jessica Tong, violin called "Rêves Extatiques: French Romantic Music" that includes the beloved staple of the repertory, Gabriel Fauré's Piano Quartet No. 1 in C minor. Come hear a sneak preview of a program that will head to New York City's esteemed Merkin Concert Hall in January! Stick around after the Potluck Luncheon to enjoy this fantastic recital.

The Third Annual Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols, mirroring the tradition from King's College Cambridge University, features members of the Congregation in the traditional readings, followed by musical responsory with the University of Buffalo Choirs under the direction of Claudia Brown, Sunday, December 8th at 6:00 pm.

The Chancel Choir of Holy Trinity performs an incredible program on Christmas Eve, including works for Brass, Percussion, Harp and Organ. The Christmas Eve Service begins at 10:30pm, with Choral/Organ Pre-Service beginning at 9:45pm. The Service reaches its zenith with the Offering Anthem and our Festival Processional, and concludes by candlelight as Roger VanDette, tenor, and the Chancel Choir sing O Holy Night.

BEWARE SCAM E-MAILS

We recently received notice that someone is imitating Pastor Lee and Pastor Brenda in attempts to steal information. Ways to tell an email is a scam:

1. Sender e-mail is not an official e-mail address. It looks similar, but is different.

2. The subject of the e-mail seems vague. When in doubt, you can call the church office or the Pastor’s cell phone.

3. Neither the Pastors nor the church office will ask for money or gift cards on an emergency basis.
