

Early Believers Share

The believers shared with each other. Now they looked for what they could share with people outside their church family.” What kind of things can you share with others?